“One voice, one story, one book, one child, one grown-up at a time. Always believe in yourself, ALWAYS when others don’t. That has been the one constant in my life since I was a child - people putting down my dreams and telling me it would never happen. But it does, Oh,... it DOES!

I wrote this book (“We Are Water Protector”) inspired by Standing Rock - because I felt helpless that I couldn’t be there to stand with my relatives. I hoped maybe one person would read it and maybe it would resonate with them. NEVER did I expect the whirlwind that came after.”
